(Macau, 14 November, 2023) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) continues its unbroken chain of support to the Macau Grand Prix as a major sponsor as well as the title sponsor of the SJM Theodore PREMA Racing. A press conference was hosted by SJM in conjunction with SJM Theodore PREMA Racing at the Grand Lisboa Macau today. The event unveiled an elite group of racers poised to compete in the “Formula 3 Macau Grand Prix - FIA F3 World Cup.” Gracing the occasion were Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, Mr. Teddy Yip Jr., Team Principal of SJM Theodore PREMA Racing, and the esteemed racers, Mr. Paul Aron, Mr. Dino Beganovic and Mr. Gabriele Minì.

Congratulating the SJM Theodore PREMA Racing on its F4 victories on Sunday, Ms. Daisy Ho remarked, “SJM’s mission is to create avenues for talent to soar to greatness, inspiring our youth to realise their full potential.” She further added, “We hold firmly that the Macau Grand Prix is an event for the entire community. Our commitment extends beyond the racetrack through a myriad of outreach programs to pass on the culture of Macau motorsport to the next generation and foster a deeper appreciation for its role in our city’s identity. Moreover, we are exerting every effort in showcasing the multifaceted allure of Macau to the world, supporting the government’s policy of economic diversification through ‘sports + tourism’ initiatives.”

“We are thrilled to be back in Macau and delighted to continue our partnership with SJM,” expressed Mr. Teddy Yip Jr. “The rich history of this iconic event, along with the legacy of the team, brings many meaningful anniversaries this year. Not only is this the 70th edition of the blue riband event, but this year also marks 50 years of Theodore Racing, a milestone that fills me with pride. Together with SJM, we have achieved two memorable wins in 2013 and 2015, and of course, our fantastic Formula 4 victory last weekend. We hope to add another Formula 3 trophy this year.”

The team, which dominated the podium in the F4 race last week, is brimming with confidence as the team prepares for the upcoming F3 races, featuring three racers who have showcased exceptional performances in the FIA Formula 3 Championship.

Coming from his third place in the 2023 FIA Formula 3 Championship, Paul Aron is looking to complete the season in style while following in the footsteps of his older brother and Macau Grand Prix podium finisher Ralf Aron.

Dino Beganovic is also coming from the team’s ranks in FIA Formula 3. The 19-year-old Swede, who won the 2022 Formula Regional European Championship by Alpine title, showed positive improvement throughout his rookie F3 season and now wants to add another memorable achievement to his resume.

Italian racer Gabriele Minì will be the newest addition for Macau. Minì, who dominated the 2020 Italian Formula 4 Championship with the team, just wrapped up his FIA

Formula 3 Championship season, ticking a valuable box with a win at the Monte Carlo Grand Prix.

As part of SJM's ongoing commitment to promoting Macau's motorsport culture, the company continues to fully support the 70th Macau Grand Prix and has arranged multiple community events to further igniting the fervour surrounding the Macau Grand Prix.

Formula 3 racers including Paul Aron, Dino Beganovic and Gabriele Minì are all set to challenge the “70th Macau Grand Prix.”
