- Robuchon au Dôme: three diamonds
- The 8: two diamonds
- The Kitchen: one diamond

Lisboa Hotel

- Guincho a Galera: one diamond
- L’Atelier de Joël Robuchon (Hong Kong): two diamonds

At the Grand Lisboa Hotel (“Grand Lisboa”), Robuchon au Dôme continues its reign with the coveted three diamonds for the sixth consecutive year, while The 8 upholds its two-diamond status for the third year and The Kitchen maintains a solid one diamond for seventh year running. Operated by STDM, Guincho a Galera at Lisboa Hotel garners its first diamond while Hong Kong’s L’Atelier de Joël Robuchon also receives two diamonds for seventh consecutive year. The longstanding recognitions from “Black Pearl Restaurant Guide” underscores SJM and STDM’s unwavering commitment to culinary excellence and readiness to achieve greater heights.

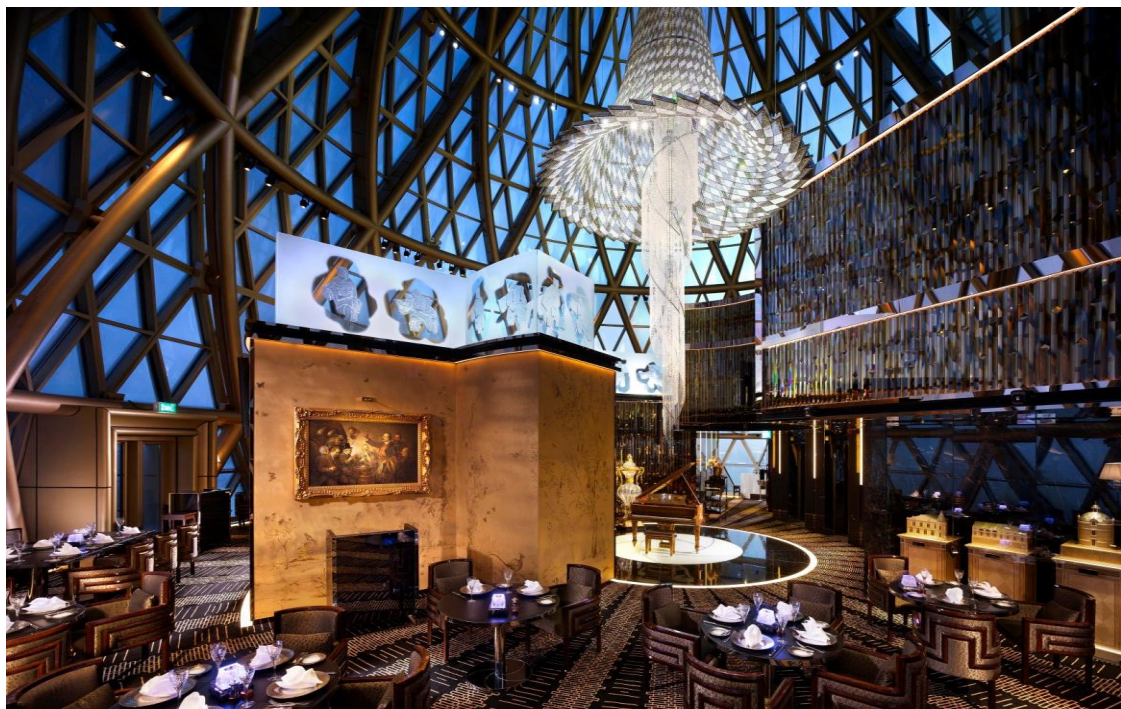

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, shared her delight, “It is with great pride and excitement that SJM and STDM have been honoured with the most diamond-rated restaurants in Macau and Hong Kong by the ‘Black Pearl Restaurant Guide.’ Our passion lies in curating an unparalleled gastronomic odyssey for our guests. We pledge to continue our commitment to excellence and creativity, promote the culinary culture of Macau, enhance the synergistic benefits of “Tourism + Gastronomy,” and underscore the allure of our Creative City of Gastronomy.”

Launched in 2018 by Meituan, the “Black Pearl Restaurant Guide” adopts a world-leading evaluation system that assesses restaurants on their culinary offerings, service standards, innovation and heritage. A panel of leading experts from the industry, including top chefs and acclaimed food critics, along with special advisors, contribute their insights to the rigorous selection process.
