Three SJM Restaurants Claim Spots on La Liste's
Top 1,000 Ranking of the World's Best Restaurants for 2025

Robuchon au Dôme secures a prominent spot worldwide, ranking highest among all of Macau's entries.

The 8 maintains its position, while Palace Garden makes its inaugural appearance (Macau, 30 December 2024) SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM") is delighted to announce that three of its acclaimed restaurants have earned spots on La Liste's Top 1,000 ranking of the world's Best Restaurants for 2025. Robuchon au Dôme and The 8, both located at Grand Lisboa Macau, join Palace Garden at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau in this distinguished honour. With an exceptional score of 99, Robuchon au Dôme secures a forefront spot on the list and ranks the highest among all of Macau's entries. The 8 also maintains its position, while Palace Garden makes its debut on this globally celebrated ranking. This achievement highlights SJM's leading role in the Asian leisure and dining, further reinforcing Macau's reputation as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy on the international stage.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, commented "Having three of our restaurants recognised in La Liste, renowned as the 'Oscars of Gastronomy,' is a tremendous honour and reaffirms our dedication to culinary innovation and hospitality. This achievement is not only a testament to the passion of our team but also underscores SJM's role in elevating Macau's reputation as a global gastronomic destination."

La Liste, launched in Paris in 2015, highlights over 35,000 restaurants across more than 200 countries and regions. Its annual rankings of the World's Top 1,000 Restaurants are determined by reviews from various trusted sources, publications, guides, and review platforms, as well as chef's opinions and guest ratings, serving as an authoritative global guide of restaurants.
