SJM Showcases Macau’s Charm as a “City of Performing Arts” to Asia and Beyond with “TVB Awards Presentation”

Extending the reach to the U.S.A., Canada, Australia, U.K., Singapore, Malaysia and more with this annual extravaganza

(Macau, 20 January 2025) The spotlight shone brightly at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau last evening as SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) presented for the second consecutive year, the celebrated annual event “TVB Awards Presentation 2024,” organised by Television Broadcasts Limited (“TVB”), bringing the star studded event to Macau. By hosting this spectacular event in Macau, SJM not only demonstrated Macau’s exceptional capabilities in staging world-class entertainment spectacles, but also successfully leveraged the “culture +” synergistic effect, elevating Macau’s international reputation as a “City of Performing Arts” and reinforcing the city’s status as a “World Centre of Tourism and Leisure.”

Live-streamed on the official social platforms of SJM and TVB, the red carpet ceremony for the “TVB Awards Presentation 2024” drew passionate fans from the Greater Bay Area and Southeast Asia, many of whom travelled to Macau to support their favourite idols. With live coverage on TVB Jade and simulcast across a powerful network of television channels and online platforms, the event at The Grand Hall reached audiences in Macau, Hong Kong, and Asia communities worldwide, including the United States of America, Canada, Australia, United Kingdom, Singapore, Malaysia and more.

The “TVB Awards Presentation” stands as a marquee event in the Greater Bay Area’s entertainment calendar, celebrating the best in entertainment with the presentation of 26 coveted awards spanning Hong Kong, the Greater Bay Area, and Malaysia this year. The awards ceremony dazzled with appearances by acclaimed stars, such as Wayne Lai, Moses Chan, Nancy Wu, Kenneth Ma, Tavia Yeung, Ruco Chan, Shaun Tam, Rosina Lam, Katy Kung, Kelly Cheung, Samantha Ko, Elaine Yiu and David Chiang.
