SJM’s Robuchon au Dôme and The Eight Honour with
“BAZAAR TASTE ELITE 10 | MACAO 2025”

The Eight Debuts on Top Ten list, Wins “Restaurant of the Year”

(Macau, 21 January 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) achieved significant recognition at the start of 2025. Robuchon au Dôme and The Eight, located within the iconic Grand Lisboa Macau, were both honoured with the prestigious “BAZAAR TASTE ELITE 10 | MACAO 2025” awards, earning spots on the BAZAAR Taste Elite Awards 2025 Hong Kong and Macao list. The Eight’s debut on the list was even more remarkable, as it also received the coveted “Restaurant of the Year” award. These achievements exemplify SJM’s dedication to culinary excellence, constant innovation, and unwavering commitment to exceptional service.

Executive Chef Julien Tongourian leads Robuchon au Dôme at Grand Lisboa. Honouring the culinary philosophy of Joël Robuchon, Chef Julien Tongourian’s masterful approach prioritises pristine ingredients and flawless execution. Each dish, meticulously prepared and exquisitely presented, offers a harmonious blend of visual artistry and exceptional flavour.

The Eight is renowned for its exquisite dim sum and premium Cantonese cuisine. Fresh, globally-sourced ingredients are transformed into stunning dishes, including Crispy Barbecued Pork Buns with Preserved Vegetables, Steamed Dumplings with Cristal Blue Shrimps in Goldfish Shape, Crispy Beef with Homemade Cream Sauce, and Supreme Suckling Pig filled with Fried Rice and Preserved Meat. This commitment to elegant and innovative dining results in an unforgettable culinary experience.

Only ten Macau restaurants earned a spot on the prestigious BAZAAR Taste Elite Awards 2025 Hong Kong and Macao list, and SJM’s Robuchon au Dôme and The Eight earned their places among the elite, exemplifying the company’s unwavering commitment to culinary excellence. Building on this recognition, SJM will continue to combine state-of-the-art facilities and outstanding service to deliver unforgettable luxurious experiences that further elevate Macau’s status as a “World Centre of Tourism and Leisure.”

Harper’s BAZAAR, one of the world’s most established and prestigious fashion publications, has consistently pursued refined living on multiple fronts. In 2023, the magazine introduced the BAZAAR Taste column, expanding the concept of “taste” from visual aesthetics to the sensory pleasures of gastronomy. Restaurants are judged on ingredient quality, culinary innovation, cost-effectiveness, and consistency of experience. This exclusive list features 30 exceptional restaurants in Hong Kong and Macau, selected for the BAZAAR Taste Elite Awards.
