

Press Release

Asia's Top Trendsetters Gather at SJM's Grand Lisboa Palace for the Tatler Asia's Most Stylish Gala Dinner

A night of celebration in style underscoring Macau as a global destination for trendsetters and tastemakers, while connecting the city to key Asian markets through the influence of regional icons

(Macau, 19 February 2025) Co-hosted by SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM") and Tatler Asia, the Tatler Asia's Most Stylish Gala Dinner held on 19 February at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau's Jardim Secreto has brought together distinguished honourees and trendsetters across Asia for an evening showcasing the pinnacle of taste and style.

The event not only celebrated fashion and artistry but also positioned Macau as a cultural and style hub, connecting the city to key Asian markets through the influence of its esteemed guests. Each honouree, a trendsetter in their respective region, brought with them a unique cultural perspective, further amplifying Macau's appeal as a destination that bridges diverse Asian markets and fosters cross-cultural exchange.

Attended by honourees from the 2024 Asia's Most Stylish of Hong Kong, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand, including Oscar Wang, multidisciplinary artist; Tian Yi You, top Chinese model; Chi Loyzaga Gibbs, renowned Philippine artist based in Singapore; Eyka Farhana, award-winning actress in Malaysia; Pyra, independent musician from Thailand and more; together with Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, and Mr. Michel Lamunière, Chairman and CEO of Tatler Asia, the event celebrated the infinite possibilities of style and artistry. The evening was elevated by exquisite dining, mesmerising ballet performances, upbeat DJ music, and the special appearance of Cai Xukun, acclaimed Chinese singer-songwriter and actor.

"At SJM, we take pride in curating experiences that celebrate stylish interpretations, diversity, and self-discovery. This vision led to the creation of Grand Lisboa Palace, the only integrated resort in Macau to feature designer branded hotels, including THE KARL LAGERFELD MACAU and Palazzo Versace Macau—the perfect backdrop for this event," said Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM. "By bringing the award gala to Macau for the first time, we aim to strengthen the city's position as a premier destination for high-profile, style-driven experiences, placing it firmly on the fashion world's radar and enhancing its appeal among discerning travellers across Asia who seek world-class hospitality."

Asia's Most Stylish is an annual accolade that honours the region's foremost style icons who exemplify Tatler's ethos of distinctive individuality and fashion-forward sensibilities. Each year, over 60 honourees from Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, Taiwan, and Thailand are recognised for their unique fashion sense and influence. This prestigious list celebrates trailblazers who push the boundaries of style, inspiring others across Asia and beyond.

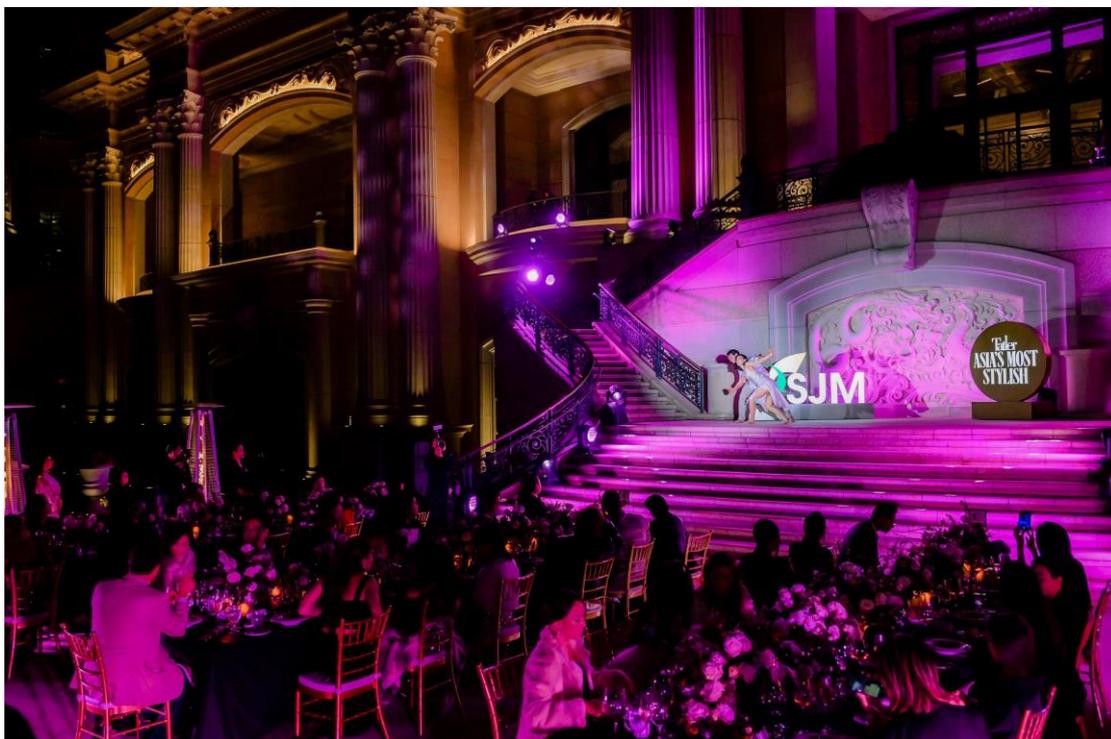

By hosting this soiree of Asia's most influential tastemakers, Macau not only solidifies its status as a global destination for luxury and style but also strengthens its ties with key Asian markets. The event highlights the city's ability to attract and inspire trendsetters, further establishing it as a cultural and economic hub in the region.

- End -

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM; Mr. Michel Lamunière, Chairman and CEO of Tatler Asia; and Mr. Cai Xukun, acclaimed Chinese singer-songwriter and actor, posed for a photo together.

International trendsetters and distinguished trailblazers gathered at Jardim Secreto of Grand Lisboa Palace for an evening celebrating taste and style.

The evening was elevated by mesmerising ballet performances and upbeat DJ music.

The special appearance of Cai Xukun, acclaimed Chinese singer-songwriter and actor elevated the soiree.