(Macau, 22 September 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) is delighted to announce that Robuchon au Dôme at Grand Lisboa Macau has once again been awarded the “Champions’ League – Best Dessert & Fortified Wine List” title at The World of Fine Wine’s World’s Best Wine Lists 2025 global awards ceremony, held in London, England. This remarkable achievement marks the restaurant’s sixth consecutive win, reaffirming its status as one of the world’s premier fine dining destinations.

Robuchon au Dôme was shortlisted for the Champions’ League, a “Best of the Best” category recognising outstanding wine lists worldwide. Competing with the annual winners of the Wine List of the Year, Robuchon au Dôme triumphed once again, securing the “Best Dessert & Fortified Wine List” accolade for the sixth consecutive year. This achievement underscores SJM’s leadership in wine curation, list design, and sommelier excellence on the international stage.

With over 17,000 unique wine labels and nearly 500,000 bottles, SJM is home to one of Asia’s most extensive and sophisticated wine cellars. This impressive collection features rare vintages and exclusive labels sourced from world-renowned estates and emerging regions. From prized large-format and limited-edition bottles to diverse sake and fortified wines, the collection is curated by SJM’s experienced sommelier team to complement the distinctive cuisines of its restaurants, foster wine appreciation, and promote cultural exchange in Macau. SJM remains dedicated to expanding its cellar and advancing the professional development of Macau’s culinary scene, reinforcing the city’s status as a world-class UNESCO “Creative City of Gastronomy.”

Since its establishment in 2014, The World of Fine Wine’s World’s Best Wine Lists has attracted top hotels and restaurants worldwide. Judged by a distinguished panel that includes Masters of Wine, world-class sommeliers, and acclaimed wine critics, the awards recognise the breadth and depth of selection, vintages, pricing, list design, cultural diversity, and alignment with restaurant identity.
