Five SJM Restaurants Named Again Among
Trip.Gourmet The Global Selection of Restaurants List
Reaffirming Macau's Appeal as a UNESCO "Creative City of Gastronomy"

(Macau, 31 October 2025) Five acclaimed restaurants under SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM") have once again been honoured with top ratings on the "Trip.Gourmet 2026 The Global Selection of Restaurants" list at the "Trip.Gourmet's Annual Global Restaurant Rankings and Fine Dining Awards Ceremony" held on today in Macau. At Grand Lisboa Macau, Robuchon au Dôme has retained the coveted "Black Diamond" distinction for the third consecutive year, as one of only four restaurants in Macau to receive this top distinction. The Eight, renowned for its refined Cantonese cuisine, once again achieved the "Platinum" rating. Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau also saw three restaurants receive continued recognition: Palace Garden, the fine Cantonese dining destination, and Don Alfonso 1890, a tribute to Italy's rich culinary heritage, both maintained their "Diamond" ratings, while Mesa by José Avillez, the contemporary Portuguese restaurant, retained its "Platinum" honour. The consistent success of these restaurants highlights SJM's steadfast commitment to culinary excellence at the highest level.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, stated, "It is truly remarkable that several of our restaurants continue to earn the recognition of Trip.Gourmet year after year. These accolades not only represent professional endorsement from the industry but also reflect the genuine appreciation of our guests from around the world, which greatly inspires our team. We will continue to bring together the world's finest culinary talents, foster cultural exchange through gastronomy, and leverage the synergy of 'Tourism +Gastronomy' to create unforgettable Macau experiences ever-worthy of this recognition from Trip.Gourmet and the trust of our guests."

The five awarded restaurants are:

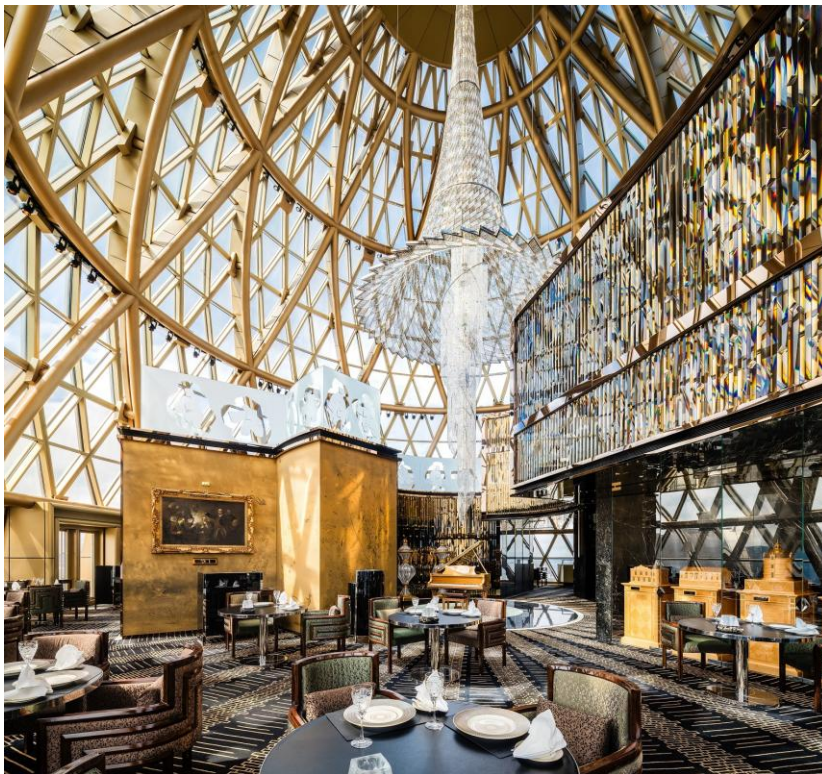

- Robuchon au Dôme – Black Diamond
- Palace Garden – Diamond
- Don Alfonso 1890 – Diamond
- The Eight – Platinum
- Mesa by José Avillez – Platinum

The "Trip.Gourmet 2026 The Global Selection of Restaurants" list is compiled from Ctrip platform user reviews and expert judge assessments. Spanning popular global destinations, the list awards Black Diamond, Diamond, and Platinum designations to restaurants demonstrating outstanding achievements in culinary artistry and service excellence.
