SJM and its Parent Company Achieve Nine Diamonds in the 2025 Black Pearl Restaurant Guide

Palace Garden Makes Its Debut on the List, while Four Restaurants Receive Consecutive Honours

(Macau, 7 January 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) and its parent company Sociedade de Turismo e Diversões de Macau, S.A. (“STDM”) have achieved remarkable success in the newly announced 2025 Black Pearl Restaurant Guide. Their five restaurants collectively received nine diamonds, the highest number of diamond accolades in the Hong Kong and Macau region, highlighting the group’s exceptional accomplishments in the culinary world. At Grand Lisboa Macau, Robuchon au Dôme maintained its highest three-diamond rating for the seventh consecutive year, while The Eight received a two-diamond rating for the fourth year in a row. Meanwhile, the opulent Cantonese restaurant Palace Garden, located at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau, earned a coveted one-diamond rating in its debut on the list. Guincho a Galera at Hotel Lisboa Macau retained its one-diamond accolade for the second consecutive year. In addition, L’Atelier de Joël Robuchon in Hong Kong maintained its two-diamond status for the eighth consecutive year.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, remarked: “Receiving the most diamond ratings in the Hong Kong and Macau region once again from the prestigious Black Pearl Restaurant Guide is a testament to our steadfast efforts and consistency in delivering excellence over the years. We are particularly thrilled to see Palace Garden make its debut on the list, which further underscores our unwavering commitment to advancing culinary culture and reflects the innovation and professionalism of our teams. We will continue to deliver unparalleled dining experiences to our guests while contributing to Macau’s international standing as a ‘Creative City of Gastronomy.’”

Launched in 2018 by Meituan, the Black Pearl Restaurant Guide is a professional dining assessment system designed to uncover and celebrate outstanding Chinese restaurants while promoting culinary arts rooted in Chinese traditions. The guide is curated by a council of industry experts, top chefs, and renowned food critics to ensure both its credibility and authority. The guide features three tiers: one diamond, two diamonds, and three diamonds, with the three-diamond rating representing an international pinnacle of dining excellence. It evaluates not only the quality of cuisine but also the creativity, service standards, and cultural atmosphere, showcasing the depth and diversity of Eastern culinary culture.
