(Macau, 27 December 2024) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) celebrated another remarkable culinary achievement at the 2024 Golden Phoenix Tree China Restaurant Guide Awards Ceremony in Wuxi, Jiangsu province, China. Six of SJM’s restaurants—at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau and Grand Lisboa Macau—received prestigious awards, solidifying SJM’s position as Macau’s most awarded enterprise. Palace Garden achieved the highest three-star honour; Robuchon au Dôme and Don Alfonso 1890 both earned two stars, while The 8, Hua Ting, and Zuicho each received one star. This exceptional accomplishment underscores SJM’s leadership and innovative spirit in the fine dining industry, highlighting its unwavering pursuit of excellence.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, remarked: “In China’s vibrant culinary landscape, SJM is honoured to have six of its restaurants recognised by the Golden Phoenix Tree Chinese Restaurant Guide, securing our position as the most awarded integrated tourism and leisure enterprise in Macau. Furthermore, Palace Garden achieved the highest three-star honour, while Robuchon au Dôme and Don Alfonso 1890 are honoured with a two-star rating, distinctions that reflect positively on Macau. These achievements shine a spotlight on Macau’s strength as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy within Mainland China’s culinary scene. We look forward to continuing to lead the industry by integrating ‘gastronomy + tourism’ to attract more visitors from across China and share Macau’s remarkable story through its cuisine.”

The Golden Phoenix Tree China Restaurant Guide, hosted by ifeng.com, is celebrated for its rigorous and authoritative evaluation process. Restaurants are nominated by the Guide’s chairpersons and committee members, with selections finalised based on insights from the editorial team. After a thorough evaluation that includes anonymous visits by culinary experts and committee members, the list of one-star restaurants will be announced first. Those restaurants elevated to the prestigious distinction of two stars or three stars will be honoured at the annual awards ceremony.

Looking ahead, SJM will continue to innovate while preserving Macau’s rich gastronomy culture by expanding its culinary repertoire with an exceptional range of dining experiences. From English and Italian to Portuguese and Southeast Asian cuisines, these diverse offerings are designed to attract tourists from around the globe, allowing them to immerse themselves in Macau’s unique charm as a “World Centre of Tourism and Leisure.”
